THEY HAVE THEIR SMELLS.

A European writer has discovered that each city has its own peculiar odor. Paris is pervaded by a faint odor of charcoal; London smells of soot. The aroma of garlic greets the new arrival at Calais. Moscow has a perfume of its own, cranberries of peculiar pungency. St. Petersburg suggests old leather boots.

Herewith is depicted a Japanese troop of cavalry at Kin-Chau preparing for a descent upon the Russian line of communication.

BOSEBALL SEASON
OPENED SATURDAY

GOOD SIZED CROWD SEES THE FIRST LEAGUE GAMES—MARINES HAS A STRONG COMBINATION.

The base ball season was opened Saturday afternoon with success. The program was marked by one of the best games that will probably be witnessed during the season and the excitement of the crowd was sustained throughout the entire game. The game lasted for fourteen innings and was between the Marines and Punahou. The latter won by the score of 6 to 4. The second game between the H. A. C. and Elks was won by the former, the score being 8 to 4. This game was called at the end of the seventh inning, however, on account of darkness.

The grand stand was crowded with spectators but the bleachers were scarcely occupied. The usual enthusiastic cheering and shouting of the fans was heard, but the voices of the rooters were not so vociferous as usual, their pipes had apparently not entirely thawed out after the winter rest. But as the season progresses the usual artists in this line will make their appearance, and the accustomed roars from the bleachers and grand stand will be heard.

Captain Berger and the band were in attendance during the game. The opening game took so long that the band ran out of tunes before the clubs got through scoring, and Captain Berger had to repeat some of his gay selections.

It is generally unfair to form too positive an estimate of teams by their showing on an opening day. This is especially true of the new players on the Elks team. But enough has been demonstrated to prove that the Mallelmas of the present year, as the Marines are designated, will not prove the set of lobsters and dummies that that team was last season. In Roberts the Marines have a man that is likely to prove the star pitcher of the league.

He has excellent control over the ball and shows headwork that reminds one of Castle's playing last year. Hardee, the pitcher of the Punahou team, showed improved speed and is likely to be one of the most valuable men of that aggregation. Both pitchers got tired in the game Saturday, but as the season progresses, they will toughen up. The other players were in excellent form.

The Elks made a poor showing. Zamlock, their new pitcher, was rather nervous. The batters of the H. A. C.'s did not have much difficulty in finding him. Allowance should be made, however, for his showing Saturday, as it was his first game in Honolulu. "Billy Bounce" Cunha was in the catcher's position for the Elks. Joy pitched for the H. A. C.'s. He showed his accustomed speed and was in good form. The H. A. C.'s have gotten a strong team together.

The score by innings were as follows:

BARRY WINS FROM CYLONE KELLY

THE LOCAL CHAMPION BESTS THE VISITOR THROUGHOUT A SEVEN-ROUND CONTEST.

Victory was with Dave Barry once more last Saturday evening. The scalp of Cyclone Kelly was added to the many acquired by the champion since he came here, after one of the best fights ever seen in Honolulu.

The defeated fighter in several of the rounds justified his title of "Cyclone," but Barry had the usual aggressiveness and the usual imperviousness to punishment, and he waded in and won.

The men both showed up in apparent good form. Referee Jimmie Fox announced that they had agreed to fight fifteen rounds for a decision. Marquis of Queensberry rules straight, which meant hitting in the clinches or any old time and each man looking after himself in the breakaway. Kelly took advantage of such rules to make several dangerous swings just as the men broke from clinching but the swings went over Barry's head. The first round was one of fairly even fighting. It gave the men a chance to size one another up and afforded a basis for the veteran ring general and trainer Billy Woods to whisper into Barry's ears during the interval, with excellent results, for Barry had the best of it from then on. The second round and in fact all the others found Barry landing severely on Kelly's wind. Kelly was evidently game and tough. His blows when they landed on Barry didn't seem to stop the latter's constant advance. Kelly was knocked down twice in the second round and again in the third, the end of the round probably saving him from a knock-out.

The fifth was a whirlwind of fighting. Kelly succeeded in landing a couple of good ones which roused the "Irish" in Barry. The result was several seconds of the most furious interchanges, with Kelly almost out at the end of it. The sixth and seventh found Kelly making no better showing. Barry was quite evidently master of the situation and appeared to put his man out at about his chosen time.

The preliminaries were as poor as the main event was good, but the audience was satisfied with the excellent main event. Ernest Heine knocked out Frank Johnson and Tom Mattox and Sydney Jackson began a contest which the audience received with jeers and laughter and hisses. Jackson suddenly lay face downwards and was counted out amid hoots. He was carried to his chair and sat with his eyes closed, but the audience would not seem to recognize the seriousness of the blow that did it, for no one saw the knock-out. Joe Modlin of Camp McKinley had an easy time knocking out Neil of San Francisco. The Jackson who fought Saturday night was not Nigel Jackson.

HE WAS A POINTER.

A delighted story is told of a sportsman who was boasting of the intelligence of his dog. "Would you believe it?" he said, "when I stopped he pointed at a man by a bootstall, and nothing I could do would induce him to move. So I went up to the man and said: 'Would you oblige me with your name?' 'Certainly,' said the stranger, 'My name is Partridge.'"

Another dog's "tail." A suburban gentleman who was in the habit of giving his dog some small delicacy at leaving for the city each morning forgot to do so on one occasion. As he was going out of his house the dog caught his master's coat tails in his teeth, stopping at a flower bed. The flowers growing there were forget-me-nots.—Boston Post.

WONDERFUL APPARATUS.

Prof. Friedrich Hirth of Munich has invented an ingenious bedside apparatus by which a person in an electrically-lighted bedroom can tell the time with hardly any movement. The invention consists of a lamp, which on a button being pressed throws upon the ceiling an optical representation of a small watch lighted by electricity. The figure is sharp and distinct and is enlarged to the size of a church clock.

Many dollars are turned away annually by The Star in rejecting offensive and improper advertisements offered for insertion in its columns.

This is a cogent reason why The Star's advertising columns are so generally used and so widely read.
